THE WAREHOUSE KICKS OFF SPRING SEASON

February 26, 2010

Eclectic, AL - The Warehouse, located in historic Downtown Eclectic, announces its March events beginning with its monthly Eclectic Trade Days on Saturday, March 13, 7 a.m.-4 p.m. The Warehouse also has several new events that will begin in March, including a carnival and antique show.

As well as vendors, arts and crafts, and food, Eclectic Trade Days will offer live musical entertainment with a Christian Music Festival from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. and bluegrass artist Jeff Mosier will perform from 1-4 p.m. Following Eclectic Trade Days, Superior Wrestling will bring their family-fun entertainment back to Eclectic with a show from 7-9 p.m featuring Road Dogg Jessie James, Steve Armstrong and Bullet Bob Armstrong.

The First Annual Elmore County Spring Break Carnival is scheduled for March 18-21 in downtown Eclectic. The primary beneficiaries receiving 50 percent of the net proceeds are Elmore County and Tallassee City School systems. The secondary beneficiaries include Common Ground Montgomery, an outreach program for children. The carnival will include over 20 rides, vendors, food and live music. Plans are underway to hold a second carnival in the fall.

Antique lovers will enjoy The Warehouse's final March event, a three-day high-end antique show with premiere dealers from all over the southeast scheduled to attend. The antique show will continue the fourth weekend of each month throughout the fall. The show is set for March 26-28, 9 a.m.-6 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Sunday.

“The Warehouse” is a newly refurbished, massive “red brick and timber” historic building of Eclectic’s Roaring Twenties era that was used until recent decades as a cotton warehouse and was owned by General Aubrey T. Hornsby. To learn more about the Warehouse events or about renting the facility, interested parties may contact Aubrey Hornsby at 303.944.0700 or email athornsby@comcast.net.
